Robert Parker's Wine Advocate Tasting Notes

“Sumptuous aromas of crushed rocks, acacia flowers, black raspberries, black currants, and graphite are all present in this full-bodied effort along with superb intensity, admirable purity, a multidimensional mouthfeel, and a finish that lasts 40+ seconds. It is another 2007 that reveals perfect integration of all its component parts.” --94-96 pts.

Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar

“Good medium ruby. Deep aromas of dark raspberry, graphite, smoke, truffle and black olive lifted by a floral note. Impressively rich, pure and youthful, with an utterly captivating smoky, rocky minerality adding an element not apparent in the estate's regular cabernet. Wonderfully supple, suave wine with a very long, slowly building finish that features a sweetness to its tannins that I've rarely encountered in Howell Mountain cabernet.” --92-95 pts.
